MEMPHIS APPEAL.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, July 4.—New Tammany Hall is admirably arranged for the meeting of the Convention, being elegantly festooned with large American flags and decorated with elaborately painted escutcheons of all the States. The accommodations for the delegates are ample, and the arrangements for the press excellent, except that the Committee in charge persistently refuse admission to accredited messengers, to receive the reports. The weather is intensely hot, but the Hall is perfectly ventilated.

Among the spectators are many ladies, also Francis P. Blair, Senator Patterson, ex-Senator Bayard, Gov. Swann, of Maryland, and many more prominent in Southern politics before the war. The Hall and galleries are densely crowded, and there is a great crowd outside vainly striving to gain admission. A strong police force is at the doors and on the streets to keep the road open and to preserve order.

The Convention was called to order at 11:20 p.m. by August Belmont, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, who said he welcomed the delegates here in this beautiful hall, and referred to the city of New York as the bulwark of Democracy, and predicted a triumph in November, for the nominees of this Convention. He then reviewed the past, and animadverted upon the Radical rule, the tax-gatherers, and other consequences attending the same, and then proceeded to discuss at some length the policy and character of the dominant party, denouncing its actions as unconstitutional, and in violation of the sound principles of a Democratic Republican Government, the country looks to you, gentlemen, by means of a Democratic organization. He then nominated for temporary chairman Hon. Henry Palmer, of Wisconsin, which was agreed to.

Judge Palmer took the chair amid applause, and returned thanks for the honor conferred on him, and exhorted the Convention to unity and wisdom in advancing the great cause to which it was devoted, and predicted for the party a triumphant support at the hands of the people.

Prayer was then offered by the Rev. Dr. Morgan, rector of St. Thomas Church of this city.

Gen. Geo. McCook, of Ohio, then offered a resolution that, until otherwise provided for by the Convention, the rules of the House of Representatives should govern this body.

Mr. Erastus Brooks—"There are many men in this body who do not recognize the rules of the present House of Representatives."

Gen. McCook then said that he would not have made the motion had he known that the present House had not dared to change any of the time-honored rules of the body.

A voice—"That's the only thing then, that they have not changed."

Mr. Richardson moved to adopt the rules of the House as they existed in 1860.

Francis Kiernan, of New York, moved as an amendment to Gen. McCook's resolution, so as to provide for the adoption of the rules of the Democratic Convention of 1864. [Applause.]

S. S. Cox said these rules were the rules of the House of Representatives.

Gen. McCook accepted the amendment which he had indicated, and accepted Richardson's also.

Kiernan wanted to know whether the adoption of these rules would not abolish the two-thirds rule.

McCook said that rule had never governed a Democratic Convention except in nominations.

Richardson said the rules now under consideration would govern only in the temporary organization.

The resolution, with Cox's amendment, was adopted.

E. G. Perrin, of New York, was then appointed temporary Secretary.

Clymer, of Pennsylvania, moved the usual resolutions for the appointment of a Committee on Permanent Organization.

The Chairman said it was proper here to read the call under which the Convention had been brought together, which was accordingly read by the Secretary.

Clymer, of Penn., then withdrew his resolution with a view to have a resolution entertained, which was then offered by Gen. Green, of New York, for a call of the States.

Stuart, of Michigan, urged that the first business properly in order was the appointment of a Committee on Credentials.

Clymer said it was his opinion that the committees should now be appointed; and he moved the appointment of the Committee on Credentials and other similar committees on permanent organization.

The Chair ruled that the business before the Convention was Green's motion for a call of the States.

Richardson then moved to lay Green's resolutions on the table, which was carried.

Clymer then removed his motion for the appointment of the committees.

Steele, of California, moved to amend it so that the delegates from each State and Territory, should name its own member of one or both of the Committees on organization and Credentials.

Clymer said that he hoped that the amendment would not be pressed, as he thought there should be a distinct Committee on Permanent Organization, and another on Credentials, and both be ordered to report on Monday.

Steele supported his amendment.

Some one moved to lay the amendment on the table.

Clymer said the motion, if carried, would table the whole subject.

The motion to table was then withdrawn.

The Chair stated the question to be on Steele's amendment.

Schwartz, of Missouri, moved to amend the amendment so as to require the Committee to report at 3 o'clock to-day.

Steele accepted the amendment.

The question was then stated to be on the amendment as thus amended.

Clymer reminded the Convention that the amendment gave each Territory, as well as each State, a member of the committees.

Cavanagh, of Montana, urged the propriety of giving the Territories a voice here; though they had no voice in the electoral college, they had a deep interest in the result.

Stanton, of Kentucky, moved the previous question, which was seconded, and the main question was ordered.

Clymer accepted Steele's amendment, so far as admitting the Territories is concerned, and Steele withdrew the clause ordering the reports from the committees at 3 p.m. to-day.

The resolution appeared to be adopted, though the vote was called for by States, and ordered.

There was evidently much division of sentiment here as to the propriety of giving the territories voice in the committees.

The following voted aye: California, Georgia, Iowa, Maryland, Minnesota, Nevada, North Carolina, South Carolina, Oregon, Texas and Virginia; and the following voted nay: Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Vermont, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Kansas and Massachusetts.

The Chair announced the result as yeas 106, nays 184; so it was lost.

During the call a debate arose in the Illinois delegation, a part of the delegation claiming the right to divide the vote of the State, while their Chairman (Richardson), claimed that they were instructed to vote as a unit, as the others had. Dalley maintained that they were only instructed to vote as a unit on the nomination for President, and on no other question.

No action on this part was taken by the Convention, and the vote was recorded as a unit.

Clymer then moved the resolution, which was adopted without division, ordering a call of the State delegations only for members of Committees on Permanent Organization and on Credentials.

The following were named on the Committee on Credentials: Alabama, W. H. Barnes; Arkansas, E. C. Boudinot; California, A. Jacoby; Connecticut, M. Buckley; Delaware, C. W. Wright; Florida, A. Huling; Georgia, E. H. Potter; Illinois, T. O. Hayne; Iowa, J. D. Test; Kansas, W. Shannon; Kentucky, J. B. McCressy; Louisiana, D. Daforte; Maine, J. S. Drew; Maryland, G. F. Clark.

A resolution was made and passed that on assembling to-night the Declaration of Independence be read.

Mr. Murphy, of New York, moved the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions, and that all resolutions offered in the Convention shall be offered without debate. Adopted.

On motion, it was ordered that the Committee on Organization be directed to report the rules for the government of this Convention.

The Chair indicated to the several committees where they would meet for deliberation.

A delegate inquired how spectators were to get into the Convention to-night, as they have already delivered their tickets at the door.

The Chair replied that the Chairman of the delegates would call at the national committee rooms for new tickets for spectators, immediately after adjournment.

Reeves, of Indiana, moved a resolution that a Committee of the Convention be appointed to provide and issue tickets of admission to the Convention for spectators.

Belmont opposed this, and moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was agreed to.

A letter was received from the Pennsylvania Convention, promising the vote of that State for the nominee of this Convention.

Brooks arose on behalf of the New York delegation to move a reconsideration of the motion for a meeting of the Convention to-night. He urged the extreme heat, and remarked that unusual Congress had been made to-day, and the city of New York had made great preparations for an appropriate celebration of this day, and hoped the Convention would give its members an opportunity to participate in this celebration.

Mr. Madegan, of Maine, hoped the Convention would, in courtesy to the city of New York, agree for this motion to lay on the table.

The motion to reconsider was made, on which a vote by States was ordered, resulting, yeas, 34½; nays, 85½; so the motion to reconsider was not tabled.

The previous question was then moved by Brooks and ordered. The motion to reconsider was adopted.

The question recurring on the resolution, it was, on motion of Brooks, amended so as to provide for adjournment until ten o'clock on Monday morning, and then the resolution as thus amended was, on a call of the States, unanimously adopted, with the exception of Indiana.

A resolution that members of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention be invited to seats in this Hall, was moved and adopted.

L. B. Folker, of New York, reminded the Convention that the reading of the Declaration of Independence had been ordered for to-night. He moved that the Secretary be directed now to proceed to read that paper, which was agreed to.

Secretary Perrin, accordingly, proceeded to read that document, the conclusion of which was received with great applause.

The Convention then adjourned till Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, MISS., July 3.—The Committee of Five, appointed by the late Convention, have for several days been engaged in eliciting testimony from negroes to prove fraudulence in the election. They sat with closed doors, receiving ex parte evidence. To-day a number of men, witnesses, were introduced, and a delegation of citizens, consisting of Judge Sharkey, Judge Potter, Gen. Wharton and Col. Jones Hamilton, called on the Committee, and asked to hear the testimony, which was refused. High words ensued and the drawing of a pistol by an attachee of the Commission. The party was arrested and taken before the City Council. While the trial was in progress, the military suspended the civil proceedings, and the prisoners were ordered to appear before the Military Mayor, to-morrow, at 3 p.m.

ONE James M. Grant, of Bridgeport, Conn., recently obtained a divorce from his wife Julia, who the next day informed the public, through the columns of a local paper, that she was not aware that a suit for divorce had been commenced until she saw the decree made public. But when, a few days later, she received intelligence that a deceased relative in England had left her eighty thousand dollars, she probably was content to let matters remain as they were.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them coequal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by an encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

CAN ONE AMNESTIED VOTE FOR ELECTORS.

Each State casts its own separate vote for President, by the number of Electors to which it is entitled, these being "appointed in such manner as the Legislature may direct." It is not even necessary that these should be elected by the people. Their vote is the vote of the State, however they are appointed; and none the less so because the vote of each State is equal to the number of its Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The Electors being agents of the State to cast her vote, those of the citizens only can vote for them, who are qualified voters for other cases, by the laws of the State. It is clear that none but citizens of the State can vote for them. A citizen of Virginia can vote only in Virginia. If he happen to be in Ohio, he cannot vote at all, for President and Vice-President. A citizen of the United States who is not a citizen of any State, cannot vote for Electors anywhere.

If a State can disfranchise part of her citizens, by requiring a test-oath which they cannot take, they can no more vote for Electors than for members of Congress or of the Legislature. It is quite true that a pardon restores the competency of the party, and makes the offence to be as if it had never been committed. The State has no right afterwards to disfranchise him for that offence, or to continue the disfranchisement before existing. But if it chooses to continue such an outrage, and the courts sustain as valid the law which disqualifies a man to vote, when he has not been convicted of the offence, by putting him to the rack, as it were, by demanding of him an oath, the refusal to take which is, and is to operate as, an admission of guilt, there is no remedy.

That is precisely what the Supreme Court of Tennessee did, in respect of the Franchise law. It held that every State had a right, by its Legislature, to determine who among its citizens should exercise the elective franchise. That was true; but the Court evaded the real question. No doubt a man may be disfranchised for treason committed; but he cannot be so unless his guilt is legally established; and that can only be done by trial and conviction, in due course of law. The question was as to the mode of proof necessary; and that mode only a lawful and sufficient.

The Court also decided that a pardon did not deprive the Legislature of the power of disfranchising for the offence. That was a still grosser error, for the reason, which no one can deny, that the pardon obliterates the offence with all its consequences. It was committed against the United States. If they pardon it, no State can punish it. But still it continues to be true that when the highest court of a State has thus decided, there is absolutely no remedy whatever.

We do not see any reason to doubt that no man can vote for electors who cannot vote at other elections; and that in Tennessee the disfranchisement is absolute.

LAWS THAT HARM THE STATE. BLACK MAIL.

In a country possessing free institutions, and where the People, by their Representatives, make the laws, and offences against the criminal code are triable by juries, no penal enactment of the Legislature is really a LAW, that does not express the convictions of the people as to the moral wrong and criminality of the act denounced.

Offences cannot be created by law. They must already have become such in the public estimation, and the law must simply express the general conviction, or it will be a dead letter. To this principle there is no exception. The people are not to be educated by legislation nor can that improve the public morals. That work is to be done by other agencies,—and chiefly by the Press, the Pulpit and the Bar, each of which is either a missionary of the Truth, or does not acknowledge its duty, and becomes an emissary of the Devil, to mislead and corrupt the people, and blunt their moral sense, and darken their faculty of distinguishing the Right from the Wrong.

A dead law that still stands on the statute-book, is like a dead limb of a tree,—not merely useless,—for nothing is so in this world,—but harmful because it has died of disease, and its decay and death are in part those of the tree itself. All useless laws are bad laws. They are the fungi that grow out of the ulcers of the Commonwealth, or parasites upon it, like the mistleto, which hastens the decay of the oak, and thrives by its undoing.

We are not quite sure that the worst laws are not those which, running ahead of the popular convictions, attempt to punish as crimes acts that the general public opinion does not regard as criminal. Whenever a law becomes obsolete or a dead letter, or is admitted to be against the general conviction or in advance of it, it should be repealed: because it cannot but be treated with contempt; and the general disregard of one law, which may practically be violated with impunity, is contagious, and produces disregard of others whose enforcement the well-being of society demands.

We do not speak now of such laws as endeavor to stamp upon innocent and even laudable and patriotic acts the character of guilt,—such as an enactment that attempts to brand a struggle for independence by States or a Nation, as treason and rebellion of the individual citizen. These cannot repeal the convictions of the Human race, or buy the sanctions of history and posterity. We have in our mind such laws as those which declare killing in the duello to be murder, and class those who break them as felons and the outlaws of society; as, those which prohibit gaming, and a score of others that are either dead letters on the statute book, or only serve to relieve the State of the burthen of paying respectable salaries to its officers of justice, and to enable the police of cities to levy a tax and create a revenue by compromising with the offenders.

Laws that have endeavored to make duelling dishonorable, by providing the punishment of death or the penitentiary for him who kills another on what the world persists in styling the field of honor, never have been and never will be enforced. The juries always acquit. They are the judges of the law, in the highest sense, because, as we have said, that alone is really a penal law, which expresses the convictions of the people, and this people each jury represents, and acts upon those convictions. All other laws, the People, by its juries, repeals, notwithstanding the utmost efforts of Judges to maintain them.

Legislators, whenever you cannot at all enforce a penal law, repeal it. If no one is punished for violating it, as is the case with the law against profane swearing, it is useless, and also injurious, because the disregard of one law breeds disregard of all. If it is only occasionally and at rare intervals enforced, against some poor devil who has no friends or character or money to fee an Advocate withal, there is so much the more reason for its repeal, because to acquit ten men and convict one, for the same offence, is an infamous injustice to the one.

Laws that proceed upon no philosophical principles, or any sound theory as to the nature and essence and proportional gravity of guilt, make the Codes of every nation iniquitous. Such are those that undertake to prevent the unlawful use of a thing, by prohibiting the possession of it, which is in no sense an offence, any more than it is an offence to possess those organs of the body that may be put to the uses of vice or violence. Such is the law against carrying concealed weapons, which never has been and never can be enforced, except accidentally and in isolated cases, and which the best citizen will, without any sense of wrong, disobey, if he has to traverse the streets of Memphis of a dark night.

The foolish old English law which punished as manslaughter the accidental and unintentional killing of another, has long since silently given up the ghost. But the criminal code of every State is still full of absurdity and injustice; and therefore it is that Jurors, bent on repealing its injustice, are too often led astray by ingenious counsel, and turn murderers loose upon society. Thus they, in the end, make laws which justify or at least excuse acts of actual guilt, upon the convenient ground of insanity, or other private wrongs, such as that for which Sickles murdered Barton Key. We do not mean that where one's wife or sister or daughter is seduced and ruined, that the Jury, the fact being conclusively proven, ought not to acquit the slayer of the villain who has done that which is of darker guilt than murder itself; for it is the settled public opinion and conviction, and so it ought to be, that so great a criminal deserves death; and whether this conviction is or is not enacted into law, it is the law, and will some time get itself enacted everywhere.

Nevertheless there are unjust convictions also in the public mind, which perpetrate enormous injustices, and protect villains at the same time. Such is that opinion which utterly outlaws the woman who has lost the jewel of her chastity, under whatever temptation or by whatever villainy of man. Her irrevocable condemnation by the whole sisterhood of woman, the stern barring by them against her of all the avenues by which she might return to respectability, lessen the guilt of the seducer in the general estimation almost to nothing. Worse crimes, let us boldly say, are every day committed by the sleek hypocrites who frequent the churches and offer up long prayers, by men of business in their commercial dealings, and by those in the public service, than that committed by the poor creature who daily sells herself for money, and has in all the wide world no one to pity her or to believe that she is not all evil, except God her Father, who, notwithstanding her sin and shame, looks down upon her with compassion from the heights of heaven. His love surrounds her always, while He scorns the apostate, the money-changer of the Temple, the false Priest, the faithless public servant, the cold, the selfish and the unfeeling, the Apostate and the Hypocrite, the Seducer and the knave who thrives by other's losses.

There is a still more malignant evil that afflicts the body politic in cities, than any that we have mentioned. It is the demoralizing custom of exempting offenders against the laws from punishment, and in effect licensing the immorality which the law condemns and commands its ministers to extirpate,—a result that is effected by the levying of black-mail, or as is done by the Police authority in Memphis, a monthly tribute upon the keepers of gaming houses and the unfortunate inmates of houses of illfame. We have made some inquiry into this practice, which is itself a crime, and know the prices paid to the Police, for immunity from prosecution, by men and women. Although a simple robbery, it is a regular source of revenue, and deserves, above every thing else in this city, the vigilant attention of the Grand Jury. If the laws for the suppression of such houses cannot be enforced, let them be repealed, for they are simply contemptible and bring the whole penal law into contempt. If such houses are a necessity of society, as would seem to be the case in every country, it would be better to license them at once, than to permit the secret system of black-mailing, which offers the opportunity and holds out the temptation to those who should enforce the laws, to steal.

Who knows the amount thus levied monthly in Memphis? Who knows the number of men and women thus virtually licensed to ply their vocations? Who knows how much of the money thus received is accounted for?

So much as this we learn from one who has had opportunity to be well informed, that the sum of one hundred dollars per month is regularly levied upon every gaming house, twenty-five dollars a month on the keeper of every house of illfame, and from ten to fifteen dollars a month on each of the unfortunates, who more deserve commiseration than to be plundered. How these levies are accounted for, we do not know. They are all illegal exactions and extortions, not one jot more justifiable than those of the banditti of the Appenines, who capture a traveler; demand a ransom for him of his friends; if they refuse, cut off an ear and send it to them, and upon another refusal stab the victim and throw him into a ravine.

Certainly these moneys, shares of the wages of vice and debauchery and of the plunder of the gaming-table, do not appear accounted for in the monthly reports of moneys collected by the Police. The statistics of the establishments so taxed are not given to the public. We propose to take steps to procure them.

We do not charge and of course do not mean to insinuate, that any of these moneys are appropriated to private uses. We only say that it is quite possible for that to be done without detection, if greed or inclination prompts to it. We shall not, even by insinuation, impeach the honesty of any public officer, if he be only a policeman, without proof of the fact.

We are quite aware, also, that the same system of black-mailing prevails in other cities, perhaps in all. Whether the same absence of responsibility, the same non-accountability prevails elsewhere, we do not know. It is the system that we denounce, and not individuals,—the whole system of selling immunity for vice or profligacy or crime, for the payment of a monthly stipend. That it prevails elsewhere makes it none the less abominable. It makes the public to be the secret partner of the gambler and prostitute, sharing the profits of their trade, while its laws declare them infamous. It is infinitely worse than the tax levied by Vespasian; for it sells for money the privilege of doing what it in the same breath proscribes as infamous. It is an equal outrage on the parties, because it punishes them by penalties, without trial and conviction, and, as to the courtezans, absolutely without any law whatever. These are dealt with hardly enough, without oppression by officers of the law; and there is no warrant of law for entering a house, when there is no disturbance or disorderly conduct to be quelled, arresting a number of women not in the commission of any offence known to the law, incarcerating them, dragging them before a Commissioner, to sink them lower than before in their own estimation, that they may, through mortification and despair resort to even more ruinous courses, in order by fleecing them without authority of law and for no offence known to the law, to swell the monthly report of fines, and increase the revenue of a city, or help pay the expenses of the police, with moneys wrung from the miserable or the vicious.

The truth is that the whole business of police justice in this city, so far as we are able to judge, the imposition of exorbitant fines by arbitrary Magistrates on poor devils whose worst offence is that they are unfortunate, or weak with the mere frailties of human nature, the finings without law, and the general vagaries of the magistracy are a singular mixture of the absurd and iniquitous; but there is nothing in it all so utterly indefensible, so reprehensible, so much the patron of vice and debauchery, as the system of levying black mail. It is a misdemeanor also; for the Code, (Art. 4788), punishes by fine not exceeding $300, and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding three months, any person who, having knowledge of the commission of any offence punishable by fine, takes any money or valuable consideration or gratuity, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to conceal such offence, or not to prosecute the same, or not to give evidence of it. If this wholesome law cannot be enforced, and the system of black-mailing be thus put an end to, it should be repealed; that the ministers of the law and officers of justice should not be the breakers of the law, and always saturated with the inclination and having the opportunity, to take bribes.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, July 5.—Both Houses of Legislature met yesterday.

In the Senate six of the barred members were admitted—Love, Richardson, Wilson, Pardee, Barnes and Moore.

In the House a resolution was introduced by Col. Sinclair to inquire into rumors affecting the conduct of Hon. W. J. Smith and E. W. Jones, Judges.

Both Houses appeared on the platform to hear the inauguration of Gov. Holden. It was a lengthy address.

Judge Reed also delivered an address.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, July 5.—By order of Gen. Meade and the proclamation of the Governor elect, the Senate assembled at the City Hall at twelve o'clock yesterday, and was called to order by Governor Bullock, who ascended to the stand accompanied by Gen. Meade, Judge Erskine and J. P. Parrott. Gen. Meade's order, and the proclamation of the Governor elect and the Omnibus Bill were read. The roll was then called, with A. A. Bradley (negro) heading the list. Oaths were administered by Judge Erskine. Ben Conly, of Augusta, was elected President of the Senate, and R. E. Marshall, of Atlanta, Secretary. After the organization of the Senate, the Governor elect, accompanied by Gen. Meade, Judges Erskine and Parrott, proceeded to the Hall of Representatives, where the same routine was gone through with.

R. S. McWhorton, of Greene county, was elected Speaker of the House.

The House adjourned until Monday.

No message was read from the Governor.

The city was crowded with strangers and the day passed off quietly.

The testimony for the prosecution in the case of the Columbus prisoners was closed to-day.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 5.—According to time honored custom, the Americans in London celebrated the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence by giving a public dinner at Langham's Hotel. Dr. Moran was Chairman. Large numbers of prominent Englishmen were present. Toasts were drank and congratulations exchanged. Patriotic and appropriate speeches were made and the greatest cordiality prevailed.

VIENNA, July 5.—The Austrian Government has initiated the work of disarming by the issuing of leaves of absence to 360,000 men in the standing army.

BERLIN, July 5.—The citizens of the United States in this city and a number of their friends, observed the 4th of July by a public dinner. Mr. Bancroft being absent, United States Consul Keysman occupied the chair.

STUTGARDT, July 5.—A public banquet and ball was given by the Americans here yesterday, in celebration of Independence Day. United States Ambassador Bancroft was present, and many Government officers and German friends of America took part in the festivities.

PARIS, July 5.—In the Corps Legislatiff yesterday the discussion of the budget was continued by Mr. Jules Favre. He said France and the neighboring powers were at peace and the Government of the Emperor must decide its policy. It should be for peace or war, and recognize the rights of nationalities. The only possible war for France was one in defense of her territory, her honor or her self-reliance.

It is reported that furloughs are to be granted to all the rank and file of the Fifth Corps.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The Committee on Permanent Organization of the Democratic Convention decided last evening by a vote of 18 to 15 to make Horatio Seymour permanent President. He was notified last evening and accepted.

The vote of New York, by request of Gov. Seymour, was cast for Gov. Bigler, of Pennsylvania.

The Committee on Resolutions met Saturday evening.

The following platform was presented by Hon. Henry C. Murphy. It has the approval of Gov. Seymour, Gov. Church and the New York delegation, and is regarded as certain of adoption:

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, standing as ever by the Constitution of the Government and guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, recognizing as a consequence of the late civil war the extinction of slavery and of the heresy of secession, with the return of peace demand first the restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union and the restoration of civil government to the American people.

Second, Amnesty for all political offenses and the regular one of elective franchise in States by their citizens.

Third, Payment of national obligations in strict accordance with the terms.

Fourth, Taxation of Government bonds to same extent, that other property is taxed.

Fifth, One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office holder, the pensioner and the bondholder.

Sixth, Economy in the administration of the Government, reduction of the standing army and navy, abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, and political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and the discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burdens of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government increased, the currency made good, and the national debt funded at a lower rate of interest.

Seventh, The reform of an administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the reservation of public lands for homes for the working people, the restoring rightful authority and independence to the Executive and Judiciary, the subordination of military to civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease; the equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens, at home and abroad, and an association of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and an encouragement to people struggling for national integrity and constitutional liberty.

Separate resolutions are devoted to thanks to soldiers and to President Johnson.

Fears were expressed yesterday by anti-Pendleton men that the Southern delegates would be persuaded to vote solid for Pendleton, thus securing his nomination. Without Southern votes Pendleton will have 110 votes, though his friends claim more. Hendricks, of Indiana, is the second choice of the majority of delegates.

The vote yesterday in the New York delegation for candidate for President, which was subsequently made unanimous, was in detail as follows: Church, 38; Chase, 10; Hendricks, 8; Pendleton 3; Seymour, 1; Judge Nelson, 2; Reverdy Johnson, 4.

Nothing yet indicates with certainty who will be the nominee for the Presidency.

The friends of Church are suspicious that he is being made a cat's paw of, and are preparing to meet the emergency.

—During last year over half a million sterling—£540,884—was transmitted to Ireland from America, by emigrants to their friends—£202,914 of the sum being in the form of prepaid passage orders.

MISSISSIPPI.

—The Holly Springs Reporter of the 3d gives the names of such negroes as voted for the humiliation, disfranchisement and oppression of the whites among whom they live.

—From the same paper we learn that "in a large portion of the northern section of Marshall county, the crops are in good condition. Last week, north of Cold Water, we saw as promising corn as we ever saw in the county at this time. Some plantations north of Cold Water, though, are suffering greatly from drouth. The same remark applies to the entire section south of that stream. We heard complaints of drouth on all hands, and fears are entertained of serious damage to both corn and cotton. In the neighborhood of Holly Springs, no rain has fallen for upwards of five weeks. Gardens are drying up, and vegetation of all kinds is suffering. Unless we are visited by rains within a few days, crops in our county will be cut short one third."

—We warn our readers against a lot of swindlers that have been traveling through our county within the past month. There were five men in the crowd, headed by a man who gave his name as O. P. Cottrell, and who represented himself as agent of Danly & Grissum, Memphis, Tenn. They visited the southern portion of Marshall county in the latter part of May, and may be prowling about the country now. Their object is to gather up all the old feathers in the line of their travel, and promise to return within a week, and furnish new feathers in the place of the old ones. They generally leave an insignificant sum of money as security for the fulfillment of their promise. It is unnecessary for us to say that the swindlers never return, and that the parties whom they swindle have to sleep on empty ticks, or else look elsewhere for their supply of feathers. Several persons have been imposed upon by these swindlers. Pass them around.—Ibid.

MASONIC TRIBUTE OF RESPECT

MACON LODGE, No. 130, June 20, 1868.

An afflictive dispensation of Divine Providence has fallen upon us in the decease of our worthy and beloved Brother and Secretary, EDWARD GILL WALLERS. Born in Virginia, May 9, A.D., 1817; died at his residence, in Fayette county (near Macon), Tenn., April 22, A.D., 1868.

In this sad bereavement our Order has lost a true Mason, an able and efficient officer, and an earnest companion in the labors of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth.

In giving expression to our feelings, we are deeply penetrated with how empty are formal professions of that sorrow which steals in deep hearts alone can experience, but of which language can give no adequate utterance. We can more appropriately render the deep and silent sympathies of wounded hearts as the most eloquent attestations of our lamented Brother's appreciated worth. It remains for us to yield our wills in humble submission to this afflictive Providence—to that stern behest, at whose exaction all must bow at last.

We deeply sympathize with this community in their loss of a noble citizen, a model friend, and consistent Christian. To the bereft family and friends, we tender sincere sympathies of condolence; with them treasure his sacred memory, and shed a tear of sorrow over their irreparable loss. We transcribe a copy of this upon the secretary's book, present one to the family of the deceased, and publish one in the columns of the Memphis Appeal.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.
City subscribers to the APPEAL, daily or weekly, who may desire to leave the city for the summer, can have their papers sent them regularly by leaving a memorandum at the Counting-room of the APPEAL, No. 13 Jefferson street.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE APPEAL.
Subscribers are requested to report to the Superintendent of Circulation, at our Counting-room, No. 13 Jefferson street, any irregularities or failures on the part of our carriers in delivering their papers promptly and regularly. Any complaint will be immediately attended to.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.
Correspondents who wish to have any attention paid to their communications must observe the following rules:
Be brief, concise and to the point, avoid the "flowers of rhetoric," and confine yourself to a plain statement of facts. Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

SIXTH DAY—Monday.—Sun rises 5:02; sets 7:53.

CROWDED OUT.—Our editorial in reference to the communication of "Voter," in Saturday's Avalanche, has been unavoidably crowded out. It will appear to-morrow.

ELDER FANNING will preach at the Linden street Christian Church to-night, and every night during the week.

GERMAN NATIONAL BANK.—The quarterly statement of this excellent institution appears among our new advertisments to-day.

REPUBLISHED.—At the request of many of our readers, we republish this morning the leading editorial of our issue of Saturday, entitled "Laws that Harm the State—Black Mail."

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—We learn that during the storm yesterday afternoon two soldiers, names unknown, were struck by lightning and one of them fatally injured. Up to writing we have been unable to obtain any more definite information.

THUNDER STORM.—Our city was visited yesterday, between half-past three and four o'clock, by a storm of wind and rain, accompanied by sharp and almost incessant flashes of lightning and peals of thunder. The rain was very grateful, indeed, and cooled off the atmosphere very much.

GRAND FREE LUNCH.—Lovers of good liquors and a nice lunch should not forget to call in at the Monroe Exchange, No. 35 Monroe street, where Vetter Dreizegacker holds forth. Every morning at 10 o'clock a lunch is spread there, which is not excelled in the city, and his bar-keepers are attentive and polite. Fine brandies, whiskies, gin, wines and the very best of foaming lager always on hand. Beer five cents a glass, except at lunch time, when it is ten.

ST. VINCENT ACADEMY, CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO.—We have received the annual catalogue of the above institution, which is beautifully situated on the bank of the Mississippi river, about fifty miles above Cairo. It is in charge of the Sisters of Loretto, and is conducted in a manner that always gives satisfaction to the parents of the pupils. The location of the building is a very healthy one, and the terms of the institution are very moderate—an important item at the present time. The names of several young ladies from Memphis appear in the catalogue.

A NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—Messrs. Jacob Steinkuhl and James McCluskey have formed a copartnership for the purpose of opening a first class saloon and bottling establishment, at No. 205 Main street. From the well known character of both these gentlemen we are assured that the new firm will be a success, and their undertaking prove what they anticipate. We are informed that the saloon is to be the most magnificent affair of the sort in the city, and to be surpassed by none in the South. The bottling establishment is a thing which has long been needed in Memphis, and will receive especial attention. They open this morning, and invite the public who love a drink of pure liquors, or a good cigar, to give them a call.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—James Penn, a private watchman on Main street, between Madison and Monroe, fell down a hatchway in the Brinkley Block, sometime during Saturday night, and was found yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, at the bottom of the fall in an insensible condition, terribly mutilated. Dr. Kimbro was called in, and found his spine broken, and the body otherwise so injured that there was no possible hope of his recovery. At writing, 11 o'clock p.m., he is reported as still alive, but in articulo mortis. It is not known how far he fell, or at what time, as he has been unconscious ever since his discovery yesterday morning. Penn is a young man, a native of Memphis, and is said to have been a very steady, estimable man.

THE allotted time of Dr. James' stay in Memphis having expired, he will in future be addressed at his home office, 91 and 93 Randolph street, Chicago, and postoffice address, box 5883 Chicago, Ill. See advertisement in another column, for particulars.

SHOOTING AFFRAY YESTERDAY.

A Soldier Shot by a Citizen.

The Wound Not Fatal.

Yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, Ed O'Neal, a well known citizen, shot a private soldier of the 25th United States infantry, named A. J. Gregory, under the following circumstances: The affray occurred in front of O'Neal's saloon and residence, directly opposite the entrance to the new county jail, on Front street. For some time past there had been some ill feeling between O'Neal and Gregory, growing out of a breach of hospitality on the part of Gregory. As this, however, involves family affairs, which we are requested not to publish, we will simply state that O'Neal, having found out certain facts connected with Gregory's visits, forbade him the house some days ago. Yesterday morning, during O'Neal's temporary absence, Gregory went to the house and remained some time, leaving, however, before O'Neal's return, and seated himself, in company with two other men, members of the same command, on a bench in front of the house. O'Neal returned shortly after and went into the house, but came out again immediately, in his shirt sleeves, with his hands behind him, and walking towards Gregory, ordered him to leave the place. This Gregory refused to do, and rising up from the bench, started toward him, and when he got within three paces O'Neal fired.

Immediately on the report of the pistol, Gregory wheeled and ran down Front street toward the Navy Yard, and O'Neal surrendered himself to Officer Sauerman, and was taken down to the Adams street station and locked up. As soon as the wounded man reached the Navy Yard, which he did in a very few minutes, making splendid time, from the word "go," his wound was examined, and found not to be of a serious nature—the ball having entered the left jaw obliquely, passed through, and came out under the left ear, grazing the carrotid artery. The wound was cleaned and dressed, and the patient will soon be able to be about again.

As soon as it was noised around in the command that a soldier had been shot by a citizen, without inquiring into the matter at all, as to right or wrong, or whether the soldier was killed or not, a party of soldiers went down to the stationhouse, and if they could have gotten hold of O'Neal, would have made short work of him.

Mr. O'Neal, as we have stated, is well known in our community, having lived here the greater portion of his life—some thirty-two years. He was three years Chief of the Fire Department, and is universally liked and respected by those who know him. Nothing but the very strongest provocation and justification could have caused him to act in the manner that he has done. We hope he may have a speedy hearing and be released.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

On Saturday night about 10 o'clock, three men, two of whom were white and one black, came to a house near the corner of South and Hernando streets, occupied by a negro named Henderson Ford. Ford had already gone to bed, but his wife was still up and had some female company with her. When the party knocked at the door she, suspecting something was wrong, did not open it, and started to alarm her husband; but before she could do so they entered, and without saying a word the negro walked up to Ford's bedside, and drawing a pistol, deliberately shot him. Without waiting to see the effect of the shot, the trio then left the house, and before the astonished and horrified women had time to raise an alarm, were gone.

A surgeon was sent for immediately, and on arriving found that Ford was mortally wounded—the ball having entered the left breast and ranging through lodged in the spine. Everything that could be done for him, however, was done, and he lingered until yesterday morning at nine o'clock, when he died. Coroner Samuelson was sent for, and held an inquest on the body, and on hearing the testimony of the wife of Ford, returned a verdict of death from a shot from a pistol in the hands of an unknown negro. This is certainly a very mysterious affair, and we hope that it may be carefully investicated. There is something more at the bottom of it than was let out by the witnesses at the inquest. Ford's wife evidently, from her testimony, expected something of the sort. Whatever it is, let us have the truth, or every Radical dog—Tray, Blance and Sweetheart—will be yelping about a "rebel outrage" in the matter.

POLICE ITEMS.
—There were sixteen arrests in the lower district from nine o'clock Saturday morning up to six o'clock yesterday evening—mostly for drunkenness and fighting.

—Patrolman E. W. Slocum's name was dropped from the rolls of the Second District, on Saturday, by order of the Commissioner. Reason—incompetency.

—There were ten arrests up to eleven o'clock last night—on the usual Sunday charges.

—Dennis Lawler was carried to the Adams street station last night with a beautiful case of the jim-jams—seventeen thousand rattle-snakes in his boots, and a pea-green monkey, with a scarlet tail, sitting on each shoulder.

—Simon Curry walloped Mrs. Curry yesterday with a strap, and Mrs. Curry had him locked up for it. The Commissioner will curry him this morning, no doubt.

—Big Mat was on the rampage again last night. She went to Engine House No. 3 and raised old Harry generally. The "perlice" were traveling for her at last accounts.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH PICNIC.—We had a call from Father Schneider last evening in regard to the accusation which we made in our yesterday's issue against the picnic on Saturday. The Father desires us to say that if any of the children were charged for a drink of water, it was done without his knowledge or consent, and that he will have the matter investigated. He also requests us to state that we were misinformed as to the number in attendance—there having been about five hundred persons present later in the evening. Our report was based on information given us about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the majority of visitors went out later in the day. The gross receipts of the day were about $600—the expenses some $200 off, leaves a net receipt of $400 for the building fund.

ORGANIZATION OF THE DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF SHELBY COUNTY.

Pursuant to a call of M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., Chairman, for the purpose of a more thorough organization, the Democracy of Shelby county met at Exchange Hall Wednesday evening, July 1, Judge P. T. Scruggs was called to the chair, and on motion of Maj. Minor Merriwether, the meeting resolved itself into a permanent organization, to be known as the "Democratic Club of Shelby county."

On motion the following constitution was read and unanimously adopted:

Constitution of the Democratic Club of Shelby County, Tennessee.

NAME AND OBJECT.

This organization shall be styled the Democratic Club of Shelby County.

The sole object is to restore the country to constitutional government; and to this end we propose to consolidate all the elements of conservatism, that they may be hurled in solid column upon the Radical cohorts, in the approaching Presidential election.

In calling ourselves Democrats, we do so without reference to party issues, and for the reason that the Democratic party North is the only one capable of opposing effective resistance to the Radical war upon the Constitution; and in this spirit we earnestly call upon all patriots, irrespective of party or creed, to assemble under that banner; and invite our friends throughout the State to form similar organizations in each county, which shall be in close communion with each other.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, seven Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, a Finance Committee of Five, and Committees of Three on Enrollment—one for each Ward, and one for each Civil District of the County.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS—PRESIDENT.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club, and preserve order. He shall have authority to call meetings whenever he may think the interest of the Club requires it. He shall sign all requisitions upon the Treasurer for funds. And it shall be his special duty to place himself, with the aid of the Corresponding Secretary, in immediate communication with prominent active members of the Democratic party in every county of the State, and maintain such communication with the view to the thorough and speedy organization of the party in one compact mass. It shall be his duty to report at each regular meeting, the numerical strength of the Club, and transmit the information to each county club in the State, and solicit a return of like information, that we may ascertain our full strength in the State.

VICE PRESIDENT.

The senior Vice President present shall exercise all the functions of the President in the absence of the latter.

RECORDING SECRETARY.

The Recording Secretary shall keep, in a well bound book, a minute of all the proceedings of the Club, and sign the same. He shall keep a roll of all members and countersign all orders drawn by the President upon the Treasurer, and shall have the custody of and be responsible for all the books and papers of his office.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Corresponding Secretary shall, under the direction of the President, conduct all correspondence with other clubs, and persons acting in concert with us; procure speakers to address the Club and the people of Shelby county from time to time during the canvass, and shall disseminate such campaign documents in advocacy of our cause as may be procured for the purpose.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall receive all moneys collected by the Finance Committee and from other sources, and disburse the same under the orders of the President, sanctioned by the Club, and shall render at each regular meeting a statement of the moneys received and disbursed during the preceding week.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Finance Committee shall solicit from all classes of our citizens friendly to the cause material aid in money, stationery, furniture, etc., and turn the same over to the proper officer once a week and make report thereof, in writing, at each regular meeting, of their work for the preceding week. They shall, in connection with the President, procure a hall suitably furnished for the Club to meet in.

COMMITTEES ON ENROLLMENT.

The Committees on Enrollment for the respective wards and civil districts, shall each procure a well bound book, and proceed immediately to visit each citizen of the ward or district and solicit his name for enrollment as a member of the Club; and in enrolling a member the committee shall ascertain in each case whether the member labors under any disability which will prevent his voting in the Presidential election; and they shall keep such as cannot vote in a separate list, and so report them to the Recording Secretary, who shall keep separate lists of the voters and non-voters, numbering the names in each list in consecutive order, so that the last number entered on each list will show its numerical strength. It shall be the duty of the Enrolling Committees to report their enrollments to the Recording Secretary at each regular meeting, and they shall impress upon each member enrolled, the vital importance of procuring registration certificates for voting, and of being promptly at the polls on the day of election, and of working might and main in the interval to swell the number of Democratic voters. The enrolling committees shall also report a list of all persons who are in sympathy with us, but from any cause, may not desire to become members; distinguishing in this class, as in the other, the voter from the non-voter; and they shall use every endeavor to obtain and report a correct list of the Radical voters.

Each Enrollment Committee shall be ex-officio a Finance Committee, and shall solicit money from all friendly to the cause, to be expended for the purposes hereinbefore set forth; and they shall pay over all moneys so collected, to the Treasurer at each regular meeting, and make report thereof in writing.

OFFICES—HOW FILLED.

The President, Vice Presidents and Treasurer shall be elected by the Club—a majority of those present deciding. All other officers and committees shall be appointed by the President, with the consent of the Club.

REGULAR MEETINGS.

Regular meetings of the Club shall be held at their hall every Saturday night at 8 p.m.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments to these laws may be proposed at any regular meeting, in writing, and if approved by a majority of the members present at two consecutive regular meetings, shall be considered as adopted.

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.

Any officer may be removed for neglect of duty, or incompetency, by a majority of two-thirds of the members present at two consecutive regular meetings.

Gen. Albert Pike was then elected permanent president.

W. T. Avery, John Lawson, Michael Mageveney, Jr., M. D. L. Stewart, A. E. Frankland, Jno. W. Leftwich, and F. L. Warner, were elected vice-presidents.

Major J. J. Murphy was elected treasurer; W. O. Lofland and Capt. J. H. Mathes were appointed recording secretaries, and Major Minor Merriwether corresponding secretary.

A letter from Israel Huddleston, of Purdy, asking to be enrolled as a member of the club, and pledging his means and influence for the furtherance of its objects, was read and accepted.

M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., moved that the following gentlemen be appointed an executive committee for Shelby county: P. T. Scruggs, P. M. Winters, M. Mageveney, junior, J. H. Edmondson, H. M. Loewenstine, J. M. Coleman, J. P. Tobin, M. C. Gallaway, and F. A. Tyler.

This the Chair declared to be out of order; whereupon, on motion of Judge Scruggs, the club resolved itself into a meeting of the whole, when a vote was taken which resulted in the defeat of the motion by 35 to 25.

Judge Scruggs presented the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we recommend that the people of the Eighth Congressional District hold a convention at Brownsville on the fifteenth day of this month, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for elector for this District, and sub-electors in the different counties of the District.

Colonel Marshall then presented the following, which was also adopted:

WHEREAS, The province of Mississippi has, at an election holden, covered herself with imperishable glory by rejecting most decisively the infamous so-called Constitution devised for her enslavement; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the Democracy of Memphis, send to our friends, the white people of Mississippi, our most earnest and sincere congratulations upon this glorious and unexpected victory, which we regard as an omen of success in the grand struggle in November.

Resolved, That to Mississippi belongs the high honor of the distinguished achievement of striking Radicalism a blow such as it has not before received, and under which it reels and staggers, and its recovery is doubtful, or it must be plunged into such deeds of desperation as will enforce its speedy dissolution.

Resolved, That our friends in Mississippi are entitled to our most profound gratitude for the noble stand they have taken in defense of civil liberty and constitutional government, and their resistance to despotism. They have shown that carpet-baggers and scalawags, with all the machinery of loyal leagues and contiguous bayonets, fraud, perjury and intimidation, may be defeated in their vile schemes of future aggrandizement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, properly authenticated, be forwarded to Hon. John D. Freeman, Chairman of the Executive Committee, at Jackson, with the request that he cause the same to be published, that we may assure the people of Mississippi of our deep and earnest sympathy in their success.

The table is supplied with the best that the market affords, the service is good and the rooms cool, airy and well furnished. The Messrs. MEMPHIS, July 6.

We had a shower of rain yesterday which would have been respectable had it lasted longer. The lightning and thunder, however, which accompanied it was of the first class, side-wheel kind, and would have insured in any office of standing A No. 1. The river at this point is still declining, and the bar opposite the city becomes more formidable every twenty-four hours. We have no later news from the Arkansas or White rivers than we gave in our last.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Eau Claire is out on Cotton Wood bar, near Paducah, and will stay there until a rain lifts her off.

The United States mail packet Commercial, Capt. Ashford, leaves to-morrow for White river. Charley Smithers is clerk. The Old Reliable connects at Devall's Bluff with the trains for Little Rock.

The Mollie Hambleton, Capt. Bowman, is the regular St. Francis river packet, leaving to-morrow. She makes all way landings. Paine, Clark and Sheil are clerks.

The Clifton, Capt. Stein, came in last night, and leaves for Cincinnati to-morrow at 5 p.m.

The Richmond is lying high and dry at Walker's bar. Her freight, coal, dunnage and fenders were all taken off, but without avail. A barge loaded with pork and corn taken from her, was dropped to the foot of Hurricane Island, and there sunk. The cement is damaged, but the pork saved uninjured.

Capt. G. W. Thomas, which was sold on Monday last at Cincinnati, has been again seized by the U. S. Marshal and towed to Fulton.

Daniel Burns, of Bay City, Mich., has written a pamphlet upon boiler explosions. Its object is to give an exposition of the causes of these explosions, and the means by which they may be prevented, deduced from an examination of the chemical principles involved in the generation of steam. He advances a new theory, that explosions occur from the "passage of hydrogen gas through the boiler plate when heated to an improper degree, and when that gas comes in contact with the fire it will explode the iron, for the iron becomes highly charged with gas." Another class of explosions occur from the latent heat set free from the steam in the boiler. He proceeds to elucidate the whole theory of the formation of steam, and claims that electricity is produced by the operation, which, bringing the oxygen and hydrogen gases, set free by the heat, in contact with each other, causes an instantaneous union, and so produces an explosion. That seems to be the chief point of his theory, and he has so fortified himself by an array of authorities that he seems invulnerable.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THIS COUNTRY.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, seven thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower registers retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by impinging with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised ear to the most cultivated one.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&wly

Hopkins did pay the sum of $500 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, E. C. Brinkley and A. P. Hopkins, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Dennison & Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by deed dated July 23, 1856, upon Trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale; said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust mentioned might direct, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the remainder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois in Book 210 of Deeds, page 242.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust named; now, therefore, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 6, 1868.

PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, JULY 3, 1868.

By the President of the United States—A Proclamation:

WHEREAS, In the month of July, 1861, in accepting the condition of civil war, which was brought about by an insurrection and rebellion in several of the States which constitute the United States, the two Houses of Congress did solemnly declare that the war was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but only to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that as soon as those objects should be accomplished, the war on the part of the Government should cease;

And whereas, the President of the United States has heretofore in the spirit of that declaration, and with the view of securing for it the ultimate and complete effect as set forth in the several proclamations, offering amnesty and pardon to persons who had been, or were concerned in the aforesaned rebellion, which proclamations, however, were attended with prudential reservations and exceptions then deemed necessary and proper, and which proclamations were respectively issued on the 8th day of December, 1863, on the 26th day of March, 1864, on the 29th day of May, 1865, and on the 7th day of September, 1867;

And whereas, the said lamentable civil war has long since altogether ceased, with an acknowledgment by the States, of the supremacy of the Federal Constitution and of the Government thereunder, and there no longer exists any reason or ground to apprehend a renewal of the said civil war, or any foreign interference, or any unlawful resistance, by any portion of the people of any of the States, to the Constitution and laws of the United States;

And whereas, it is desirable to reduce the standing army, and to bring to a speedy termination the military occupation—martial law, military tribunals, the abridgment of the freedom of speech and of the press, the suspension of the privilege of the habeas corpus and the right of trial by jury—such encroachments upon our free institutions in times of peace being dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genius and spirit of our republican form of government, and exhaustion of the national resources;

And whereas, it is believed that amnesty and pardon will tend to secure a complete and universal establishment and prevalence of municipal law and order, in conformity with the Constitution of the United States, and to restore all appearances and presumptions of a retaliatory or vindictive policy on the part of the Government, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations and disfranchisements, and on the contrary, to promote and preserve complete fraternal reconciliation among the whole people, with due submission to the Constitution and laws,

Now, therefore, be it known, that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do, by virtue of the Constitution and in the name of the people of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare, unconditionally and without reservation, to all and to every person, who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, (excepting such persons who may be under indictment or in custody on the charge of treason or other felony), a full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States, or of adhering to other enemies during the late civil war, with a restoration of all their rights of property, except as to slaves, and except also as to any property of which any person may have been legally divested under the laws of the United States. In testimony whereof I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Done at the City of Washington, the fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-third.

By the President:
(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 3—Midnight.—The meeting understood to have been called of Southern delegates, was not a general one, and resulted in nothing of importance. It seems some jealousy exists as to any following the leading of Virginia, and each delegation is likely to take counsel of itself. The North Carolina delegation is said to be for Chase, and indeed there is very strong under current for the Chief Justice among the old heads of the party in the Middle and Eastern States, which requires but a slight acceleration to become a powerful movement.

It does not seem possible that Pendleton can be nominated, in fact it is probable his supporters in Indiana and the extreme Northwest, will break away from him after one or two ballots.

Seymour, Hendricks and Chase are the leading candidates, and from this list the nomination eventually will be made.

An interview was held to-day between Wash McHea and Judge Flynn, of Cincinnati, and Gov. Seymour, Sanford Church, Sam J. Tilden, Jno. A. Green, of New York, which was of a private nature, but report says the Pendleton men promised not to press his nomination to the extent of a split, and in effect tendered their support to Seymour in case of the defeat of their favorite.

The announcement of the President's proclamation created some excitement and excited some talk of nominating President Johnson. The Executive fight is positively settled. Eldridge remains, and the whole control remains in the hands of the Boston ring.

ALABAMA.

—In Mobile, on the 29th ult., John Ledebur, manager of the Gayeties theater, committed suicide by taking strychnia. Financial embarrassments and business troubles was the cause of the act.

—The Governor of Alabama has issued a proclamation in which he offers $400 reward for the arrest of Mich. Ferrell, the murderer of Seaborn Jones.

—A Montgomery paper says that the office of registration of voters was to have been closed on last Tuesday, the 2d inst., and the books and records turned over to the military authorities.

—Last week Dr. Hawson shipped sixty bushels of peaches from his orchard in Dallas county, Ala., to Chicago.

—The jail of Shelby county, Ala., was destroyed by fire on the 17th of June. It originated in the building, up stairs, and was the work of an incendiary. There were two prisoners in the building, one of whom made his escape.

—The Carrollton West Alabamian says that the weather is cool and dry—no rain for nearly three weeks. With seasonable showers, planters in this section will make beautiful crops of corn. Cotton is looking fine, and farmers have cheerful faces—when they see a cloud rising.

Gen. Grant and the Hebrews.

The Meadville (Penn.) Hebrew Society, at a regular meeting on the first of March, after electing officers, passed the following resolution, which was ordered published in the Cincinnati Israelite:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Meadville Hebrew Society, fully indorse and approve of the editorial in the Israelite of February 28th, "concerning the infamous order No. 11, of Gen. Grant, while in command of the Department of Tennessee," and that we pledge ourselves not to vote for Gen. Grant as President of the United States, should he secure the nomination of either party, and we will use all honorable means to defeat him for that high and distinguished office.

—Henry A. Wise is preparing Recollections of his own life, to be published in Boston.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY PPEAL,
MEMPHIS, July 3, 1868.

This has been a dull day in commercial circles; but business at the banks was rather more animated, from the fact that, as to-morrow (the 4th of July) will be generally observed as a holiday, the business of two days was necessarily crowded into one. The banks continue to report themselves in easy condition, but are very cautious in the matter of discounts, in consequence of which capital remains idle, as there is no other employment for it at present. Exchange is not offered as abundantly as it was a few days ago, which renders necessary moderate shipments of currency in the direction of New York, on which point the ruling checking rate is ⅛ premium. Good bills would pass readily at par to ⅛ premium at the banks.

The weather continues very warm, with occasional "dry showers," which afford temporary relief from the oppressive heat. We have not had, for some weeks, sufficient rain to benefit the crops, and as regards corn, complaints of drouth are more numerous than ever. It is feared the crop will be ruined.

Gold opened in New York at 140¾c and closed at 140¾c. Our market continues dull, with few calls, and receipts a little in excess. Dealers buy at 138 to 139c and sell at 139½ to 140c. Silver is nominally 129 to 130c buying and 131 to 132c selling, for halves and quarters.

City Scrip was dull at 80c in the hands of dealers, who aim to buy at 75c, at which rate there are few if any sellers. A lot of $500 was sold to a dealer at 77c.

County Scrip was dull, dealers buying at 60c and selling at 62½ to 65c.

Police Scrip has generally declined and holders, pressing the market, cannot readily realize higher than 75 to 77c, although brokers' selling rates range from 80 to 85c.

The movement in city and railroad stocks and bonds was very light, and all we learned of was a sale of 42 shares Memphis and Charleston Railroad stock at 56c. The inquiry is good for all descriptions, especially city bonds, of which none appeared on the market, and which are in demand at 55 to 56c. On other securities our quotations are entirely nominal. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage, 50c; 2d do, 32 to 35c. Memphis and Ohio Railroad stock, 10c; 1st mortgage 10s, 30c; 2d do 6s, 20c. Mississippi Central, 1st mortgage, 57 to 58c; 2d do, 40 to 41c. Memphis and Charleston Railroad stock, 55c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 42 to 44c; do Navy bonds, 52c.

Our Cotton market was without any change to-day, excepting increased firmness and greater scarcity of the staple. Only one sale worthy of note transpired or was reported—11 bales good style low middling at 29c. There is still a list of 40 bales on the market. It is called middling, but on a full and active market would not class higher than low middling, and is held at 30c.

The Liverpool market was unchanged; sales 8000 bales at yesterday's prices, 11¼d for uplands, and 11¼d for Orleans.

In the New York market there was a fair demand with limited offerings; sales 1500 bales.

The Liverpool statement for the week ending to-day is as follows: Sales, 56,000 bales, of which 7000 were to exporters and 4000 to speculators; stock, 603,000, of which 353,000 are American; stock afloat, 609,000, of which 36,000 are American. Compared with the last weekly statement, this shows a decrease of 7000 in sales to exporters, 5000 less to speculators, or a grand decrease of 12,000 bales; decrease in stock, 4000 bales; decrease in American, 14,000 bales; increase in amount afloat, 70,000 bales; decrease in American afloat, 3000 bales.
